LEARN SHARE SUSTAIN

On behalf of the National Steering and HMEC 2015 Planning Committee, we cordially invite the present and past officers of your temple executives, community leaders, activists and scholars to participate in the 10th Hindu Mandir Executives' Conference (HMEC-2015). As you may already know in the last 9 years, every year an average of 100+ temples participated across North America and the Caribbean in HMEC.

The largest annual conference for Hindu Organizations

Theme: Strengthening the Hindu Family

The Hindu Family identity and the sustenance of dharma are challenged by the dilution of traditions and the growing divide between generations. Hindu Dharma has always valued and supported the need for strong, effective families since it has been and still remains the single most important building block of society. Strong families ensure a well-organized, productive and harmonious society. Sustaining Hindu Dharma through the deliberate strengthening of the Hindu Family will depend on the extent to which the diaspora and successive generations remain anchored in our timeless traditions while embracing the changing times.

Ensuring the change, adaptation and sustenance of Dharma requires our collective thought, action and commitment. The Hindu temples, institutions, teachers, priests and practitioners have a critical and significant role to play in ensuring that not only the nuclear family but the global Hindu community stays dynamic, vibrant and rooted in our eternal principles and value system. HMEC 2015 will be a venue where this important question is deliberated upon for strategic planning and execution.

By virtue of your proven commitment to the cause of Hindu Dharma, such an important deliberation is incomplete in your absence. Your presence and the temples' representation is a key success factor for HMEC 2015.

We request your honored presence and participation in the conference to shape the future trajectory of this important initiative. Please contact any member of the guiding team for additional information or clarification. Please visit www.myhmec.com for on-line registration.

Yours truly,
Host Team Members
