The Refugees from Syria: To be or Not to Be?

Are all of them refugees? What if some of them are not really refugees and are actually IS operatives sneaking in and later does what they know to do best – rape, mayhem, loot plunder and devastating the country which gives them the shelter.

Even when poorest countries are opening the purse-strings and their gates at border to help the refugees, the richest of them i.e. Saudi Arabia has announced to build 200 mosques for migrants. These mosques will preach same religious fundamentalism which IS espouses and practices – the cause of Syrian plunder and carnage leading to mass exodus!

Saudi offers to build 200 mosques for migrants

Adam Withnall

Saudi Arabia has reportedly responded to the growing number of people fleeing West Asia for western Europe — by offering to build 200 mosques in Germany. Syria's richer Gulf neighbours have been accused of not doing their fair share in the humanitarian crisis, with Bahrain, Kuwait, Qatar, Oman and the UAE also keeping their doors firmly shut to asylum-seekers.
